

Adult Wednesday Night Bible Study

Winter 2012

Join us for one of these SUPER midweek study opportunities for growth and discipleship. All studies begin at 6pm.

How to Have a Super Prayer Life

Led by Michael McCullar

Meets in The Heritage Room

This study will focus on ways to improve the personal prayer and devotional life of believers. We will look at why we are to pray, barriers to effective prayer, patience practices in regards to prayer, Biblical examples of prayer, how to effectively pray for others, and, how to take the disappointment and resignation out of our prayer lives.

Beth Moore's James: Mercy Triumphs

Led by Peg Stephenson

Meets in Room C263

This midweek opportunity for women will feature a brand new study from Beth Moore this winter. Using video and discussion, the group will discuss the NT book of James long beloved as one of the favorite books of the Bible. Workbooks for the class will be available for $15 per person.

Servant Leadership

Led by Marsha Janofksy

Meets in Room C314

This new class at Johns Creek Baptist focuses on what it means to model Jesus' example of servant leadership as we in turn seek to live as servant leaders in the church and in the world today. Unfortunately, because the class is limited in size, it is already full for the winter. But, new opportunities will be coming soon!!

A Small Group Discussion of Disciplines

Led by Rickey Letson & David White

Meets in Room B237

Disciplines offers daily readings and reflections based on selected passages from the Old Testament, Psalms, Gospels and NT Writings. Each week, we will discuss the readings for the previous days and talk about how to apply our readings and reflections to our daily living. This group offers a chance for great discussion in a small group format. Copies of Disciplines will be available for $10.
